

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1866.

WHOLE NO. 11,080.

PRICE FOUR CENTS.

PERSONAL.

BENJAMIN McCABE WILL RETIRE FROM SOMETHING to his advantage by calling at 102 Bowery. JOSHUA McCABE.

GREENWOOD CAR-BETWEEN 2 AND 3 P. M., SUN-DAY, DECEMBER 31. Address Edgar L. Jr., New York Post office.

THE LADY IN PURPLE MORNING DRESS AND GOLDSMITH'S BOY SWEEPING PENMANSHIP, AC-TION BROADWAY.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—All who enter their names during the holidays will be received at ONE-HALF THE USUAL PRICES for the term beginning January 1, a rare opportunity.

A PARISIAN LADY JUST ARRIVED FROM PARIS, ready to give lessons in French and conversation, pertaining to manners, etc. Address 22 Thompson street, first floor, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 1 P. M.

M. S. H. SHALL ENDEAVOR TO EMULATE YOUR kindness, indifference, which put to shame your brother now.

NORTON TO HATE DRIVERS.—A LIBERAL REWARD will be given to the driver of a carriage who will bring me to Jersey City on Friday night, the 28th instant, between 6 and 8 o'clock. Information thankfully received at the office of the Herald, West 3d street. WILLIAM MCCOLLODRIDGE.

PAULINE—ANY THANKS FOR THE PRESENT received. Shall do the like. Give it when W. V.

TO CHARLES PHILIP THEODORE.—AN INTERVIEW is requested at 10, shall answer no more than two sentences. E. A.

WILL MRS. WARREN, LATE OF WEST TWENTY-SEVEN Street, please send her address to Wm. Johnson, box 182 Herald office?

MATRIMONIAL.—A MARY REMAINS THE ACQUAINTANCE OF SOME gentlemen with a desire to matrimony. Will mention names to those in search of a mate. Address Brooklyn Post office.

FOUND.—A WATCH AND CHAIN, WHICH THE owner can have by paying property and paying costs.
Call at 244 West street.

LOST—AT THE JERSEY CITY FERRY, SUNDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 24. A BLACK HORSE, BROWN tail, and no questions asked if delivered at Broadview House, corner of Canal street and Broadway.

LOST ON SUNDAY, DEC. 26, IN GOING FROM
Twenty-ninth street and Teninth avenue to Thirty-fourth street and Ninth avenue, a Pocketbook, containing $50. A suitable reward will be paid to any calling at 257 tenth street.

BOOKKEEPING, ETC. FOR THOROUGH AND PRACTI-CAL INSTRUCTION IN BOOKKEEPING, WRITING, ARITHMETIC, READING, SPELLING, GRAMMAR, &c. AT TOWNSEND'S ACADEMY, 30 BOWERY, DAY AND EVENING. ROOMS FOR LADIES AND PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.

A GRADUATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CAM-BRIDGE, WITH A DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS, GIVES PRIVATE INSTRUCTION IN CLASSICS, MATHEMATICS, PHILOSOPHY, ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE. GENTLEMEN PREPARED FOR THE NAVAL AND MILITARY ACADEMIES. ADDRESS TOWNSEND'S ACADEMY, 30 BOWERY, NEW YORK.

TO CANADA, from No. 9 University Building, Washington Square.

LIBERTY B. WALDRON, AUTHOR, AND W. S.
BROOKLYN, WRITER, ON BROADWAY, TEACHES BOOKKEEPING TO MEN AND WOMEN, AND IS LOCATED IN THE BROAD-WAY, EIGHTH AND SIXTH AVENUES, NEW YORK.

DOUGLASS'S COMMERCIAL ACCADEMY, 60 BROAD-WAY.—Owing to recent improvements made in this institution, it is now ready to receive students. Pupils who enter this day secure seats at present low rates.

$2.50 PAY FOR A BUSINESS COURSE, WRITING, BOOKKEEPING, ARITHMETIC, FORMS, &c.

HENRY D. MINER, AUCTIONEER, salariorian 37 Nassau street, opposite the Post office.

MONDAY, DEC. 31, AUCTION AT 10 AM. AT NASSAU ST.
AN INVOCATION OF FLEMISH AND BELGIAN PICTURES.

LOT RECEIVED.—MULE RACING ON NEW YEAR'S DAY, 1867, rain or shine. ALL P. M. instead of noon as heretofore. Cost, 25 cents. Each weight carries 100 lbs.
Wager, 100 dollars. Tickets, 25 cents. Call at 244 West street.

LOST ON SUNDAY, DEC. 26, IN GOING FROM
Twenty-ninth street and Teninth avenue to Thirty-fourth street and Ninth avenue, a Pocketbook, containing $50. A suitable reward will be paid to any calling at 257 tenth street.

LOST OR STOLEN.—CERTIFICATE OF 10 SHARES of stock of Russell File Company, in name of Dr. G. N.
Macy, No. 62, Address Wm. H. Herald office.

LOST OR STOLEN.—ON SATURDAY MORNING, DE-CEMBER 24, A small black blue sky Terrier; answers to the name of "Toto." The owner will be suitably rewarded by leaving him at the Everett House.

LOST OR STOLEN.—A HORSE, CART AND HAR-NESS, on Thursday, Dec. 27, 1866; horse was blind in both eyes, pony built, light color; cart ordinary spring.
Leave a reward of $100.00. Call at 244 West street.
No. 242 Concord and Hudson avenues, Brooklyn. I hereby notify the public that I am the legitimate owner of said horse and cart, and will prosecute to the full extent any person who may offer them for sale. I will cheerfully reward any person who will give me any information regarding above. THOS. CARTY, 42 Watts street.

Rewards.

$5 REWARD WILL BE PAID FOR A BLACK GOAT, lost on Sunday, November 26, in the Bronx, on Call at 118 Bronx street, in grocery store.

$5 REWARD—GIVEN FOR A COAT LOST BY A person, on Saturday night, December 26, between Dunleavy Hotel and Seventeenth street, Broadway. Call at 35 Broadway, the same.

LOST OR STOLEN.—ON SATURDAY MORNING, DE-CEMBER 24, A small black blue sky Terrier; answers to the name of "Toto." The owner will be suitably rewarded by leaving him at the Everett House.

LOST OR STOLEN.—A HORSE, CART AND HAR-NESS, on Thursday, Dec. 27, 1866; horse was blind in both eyes, pony built, light color; cart ordinary spring.
Leave a reward of $100.00. Call at 244 West street.
No. 242 Concord and Hudson avenues, Brooklyn. I hereby notify the public that I am the legitimate owner of said
horse and cart, and will prosecute to the full extent
any person who may offer them for sale. I will cheerfully reward any person who will give me any information regarding above. THOS. CARTY, 42 Watts street.

REWARD.—LOST ON SATURDAY, DEC. 26, A white dog, 10 months old, black back, white front, tail black, ears black, ring around his tail, answers to the name of Billy. 16 West Twenty-third street.

$20 REWARD WILL BE PAID FOR THE TRUNK and contents taken from No. 10 Varick street on Saturday night, and no questions asked.

$25 REWARD.—LOST ON SATURDAY EVENING, employed in a Bleecker street car, a Pocketbook containing in it two or three dollars' worth of coins to the owner only. X. F. PARIS, 406 Christopher street.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A. To the Editor of the New York Herald.— As some prominent persons in a party have recently come forward to the complaint, in the report in which some things were entirely suppressed, the editor (I do not know the object) of which is to prejudice and injure me, and to misrepresent the column of facts as he sees them, which are simply as follows:

Alfred Smith lived in my family as a servant, and had charge of seven, eight men, and I extended every kindness and consideration to them, as well as their child, who was permitted to be with them, as well as myself.

When Eliza, from indisposition, was incapable of performing her work for several weeks, I continued paying her wages, and when she recovered, I continued to pay her wages, and had the additional expense of keeping her.

During all this time, the rent was more than heretofore paid, and bed and every variety of housekeeping articles.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

The pocketbooks containing the daily bills, and after an absence of about two months, I begged to return, to which I
individually assented, the principal consideration being
that Alfred Smith had been sick, and was unable
to support himself, and was compelled to make the charges
upon me, and was entitled. The pocket was
clean, simple and conclusive.

No master was found, and the Court, in
accordance with my request, ordered that the pocket
should be given to me, and her wages, and the
other expenses of the household.

</div